Bonds. Marriage bonds were not required by all colonies or states but are found extensively in the South and New England. Bonds were posted prior to the issuing of the required marriage license in some states and were the sole document required in others. Bonds were posted by the groom alone or with a second person, usually the father or the brother of the bride, to defray the costs of litigation in the event the marriage was nullified.

In 1839 JONATHAN and his son, WILLIAM, moved with their families to Washington County, Alabama. JONATHAN's son, JOHN, had moved there from Escambia County, Florida Territory, about 1835. Another son of JONATHAN, JAMES DEARMAN, died between 1835-1839 in Washington County.

No 49 ELIZA DEARMAN b. 1828 Escambia Co. Fla Territory married 2 Dec 1846 Francis Waites.

AG IV Jonathan Dearman (1771-c1841), Washington County, Alabama
Jonathan Dearman, son of Solomon Dearman and Mary (?) Brigman, was born in Anson Co., N. C. He married c1790, his wife's name is not known. He, his wife and children moved to Darlington Co., S.C. at same time his parents moved to that area, c1796. In 1799 he moved to Georgia and stayed until after 1803. He moved to Mississippi Territory before 1809 as the Territorial Papers have his signature on a petition dated May, 1809. By 1821-22 he had become deeply in debt and he moved to Escambia Co., Florida Territory, carrying some of his family and his slaves to keep the slaves from being seized for his debts. In 1832 he moved to Sumter Co., Al., staying there until c1839. He moved to Washington Co., Al. and died there between 1841-1849. We have a partial list of his children.

DeARMOND FAMILIES

G II THOMAS DERMOND (1730-c1785), Mecklenburg County, N. C.

Thomas Dermond, only child of James d'Armond of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, by his first marriage, was born about 1730.¹ Since his father came to America about 1735, Thomas was little more than an infant at the time of the voyage, and it is difficult to believe that James would have attempted the trip without the child's mother, or whether Thomas was orphaned before or after his arrival in America is speculative. His father soon re-married and Thomas grew to manhood on his father's farm in West Hanover township. His father died in 1748 but Thomas apparently continued to live at home until his marriage.² His stepmother, Mary Johnston Dermond, died in 1779, and did not mention Thomas in her will which is substantiation of the fact that he was not of her blood.

He continued to live in Pennsylvania until about 1761³ when he migrated with his half-brother, John, and the entire Flenniken family, to Mecklenburg County, North Carolina. There he settled on McAlpins Creek, and lived neighbor to his wife's brother, William Flenniken.⁴ The date of his death is not known but it must have been before 1790 since he was not recorded in the 1790 census, his home was broken up and his children scattered. The last actual record of him was in January 1769.⁵

He married prior to 1753, and in Pennsylvania, Mary Flenniken (b. May 15, 1731), daughter of James Flenniken (q.v.) and Jane Gillespie.⁶ She was a sister of Esther Flenniken who married Thomas' brother, John.

1. James d'Armond, in his will (q.v.) written in 1748, appointed Reverend Richard Sankey as guardian for all his children, indicating that Thomas had not reached his majority. Eighteen being considered manhood in those pioneering days, Thomas' birth cannot have been prior to 1730. This will also bequeaths to "my son Thomas . . . five pounds—I loved him more than the other children . . . N.B.—that before signing I leave my blue coat and best hat to my son Thomas".
2. Thomas Dyermond (sic) was mentioned in the will of Robert Montgomery, Paxton township, Lancaster County, Penna., dated October 6, 1748: "I give and bequeath to Thomas Dyermond one blue coat . . .".

 3. Jane Flenniken's will (Appendix) makes bequeaths to her daughters, Mary [Dermond] and Esther Dermond.

4. Thomas Dearmond bought a place from Joseph Scott about 1758, and later sold it to Alexander Miller. Location is not shown as this was a caveat proceeding, so we only know that it was in Pennsylvania. Penna. Archives, Series 3, Vol. 1, p. 233.

5. George A. Selwyn, as governor of North Carolina, sold to Thomas Dearmond, planter, 107 acres on McAlpins Creek, Mecklenburg County, deed dated January 13, 1767, being a state deed. Mecklenburg County, N. C. Deeds, Harris Ledgers, Book 9, p. 61.

Another deed, dated January 10, 1767, was for 182 acres on McAlpins Creek, adjoining Wm Flenniken's survey. Mecklenburg County, N. C. Deeds, Harris Ledgers, Book 9, p. 66.

On January 7, 1769, Thomas Dearmond mortgaged to Peter Johnston, land on McAlpins Creek, adjoining Wm Flenniken, from deed of January 10, 1767. Mecklenburg County, N. C. Deeds, Book 22, p. 82.

AG III JAMES DEARMOND (1753-1830), Mecklenburg County, N. C.

James Dearmond, son of Thomas Dermond and Mary Flenniken, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, in 1753, prior to his father's migration to North Carolina about 1761. He continued to live on his father's farm which he acquired either by inheritance or purchase. He was listed in the U. S. census, first in 1790, and again in 1800 and 1810.¹ On September 27, 1790, he purchased land in Mecklenburg County from John Hutchison² and on November 21, 1797, he sold to James Glass, land lying on the east side of McAlpins Creek,³ which was the location of his home. Again on October 7, 1797, he sold to Allen Reid, 108 acres of land on McMichaels Creek, deed being acknowledged by his mark, and also signed by his wife, Elizabeth.⁴ On August 20, 1795, he also sold to Hugh Kirkpatrick, land on McMichaels Creek,⁵ deed being witnessed by John and James Boyes. On November 16, 1815, he sold land to his son, James junior.⁶ He died on February 11, 1830.

He married about 1775, Elizabeth —, born 1760 or earlier.⁷

AG III SAMUEL DEARMOND (c1760-1819), Feliciana Parish, La.

Samuel Dearmond, son of Thomas Dermond and Mary Flenniken, was born probably in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, prior to his father's removal to Mecklenburg County, N. C., although the exact year is unknown, and apparently was named for his mother's brother, Samuel Flenniken (q.v.). He grew to manhood on his father's farm on McAlpins Creek, and evidently married in North Carolina, although there is no known record of the marriage. After 1784, in company with his brothers, David Flenniken Dearmond and Richard Dearmond, he either accompanied or followed his uncle, John Dermond (q.v.) to what later became Knox County, Tennessee, and lived there until sometime after 1801, although one authority has him in Mississippi as early as 1795.¹ This is contradicted by the tax reports for Blount County, Tennessee, for the years 1800 and 1801, which record him as possessed of 200 acres of land in 1800 and 150 acres of land in 1801, and taxable with one white poll. His farm may have been first in Knox County and later included in Blount County when that county was formed in 1795. Soon after 1801, Samuel, his first cousin, David Flenniken Dearmond, and perhaps another first cousin, Joseph F. Flenniken, son of Samuel Flenniken (q.v.), left East Tennessee and went down the Tennessee River on log rafts, successfully negotiating the Muscle Shoals on the Tennessee River in Alabama, leaving the river where it swings north again, and followed the Natchez Trace to Mississippi.² Apparently, they reached the Mississippi territory about 1803 and remained there only a brief time.³

Although Samuel moved into West Florida, a Spanish possession, in 1803, he did not at first enter claim for any land. On September 8, 1806, he settled on Bayou Pierre, and on November 15, 1806, entered claim for 150 acres.⁴ This tract had been originally settled by Robert Thompson, and Samuel made his claim as assignee of David Lum. At the same time, he entered claim for 640 additional acres, Bayou Pierre, as original settler, on October 30, 1806.⁴ Another record indicates that he secured additional land in June 1808.⁵ All these claims were entered while Feliciana was still a part of West Florida and under the Spanish crown. Spanish rule was overthrown by the settlers in 1810 and the Republic of Feliciana set up which endured for

74 days, after which the United States Congress claimed it as part of the Louisiana Purchase. Undoubtedly our subject played a conspicuous role in this revolt. The map of original land grants in East Feliciana Parish shows Samuel's land as lying along the east side of Comite River, near and slightly northwest of Clinton, and consisting of 615.82 acres.⁶

Peace was not yet to come to this rugged descendant of pioneers, and when the United States became embroiled with Great Britain in the War of 1812, he answered the call of General Andrew Jackson in 1814, and joined his army at New Orleans. He served in Captain L. C. Griffeth's Horse Company, commanded by Colonel Hinds. He was accompanied by his four sons, and served until the end of the war in 1815.⁷

He died in 1819, after a rich and eventful life, so typical of our pioneer ancestors whose task it was to open up and domesticate this wild and rich continent.⁸

He married early in life, Elizabeth —, whose maiden name may have been Elizabeth Greene.¹¹ She is recorded, along with her husband, as a charter member of Old Hephzibah Baptist Church in 1813.¹² On September 1, 1819, after her husband's death, Elizabeth purchased his assets (presumably the family personal effects), and the purchase was secured by her son, William.⁹ There is no record of her birth or death.

See SAMUEL JACKSON D'ARMOND, Footnote 1, for reference to "one or two cousins" who accompanied Samuel Dearmond to Tennessee and Mississippi.)
 11. This assumption is supported by the fact that one of her sons was named 'Samuel Greene'. Again, her grandson, John Dearmond (1800-?), named his eldest child 'Ira Green'. The appearance of the name 'Greene' twice in the family strongly indicates a family origin and since there is no other source save through Elizabeth's family, the author is fairly certain of the correctness of this assumption.

III DAVID FLENNIKEN DEARMOND (c1775-1838), Blount County, Tenn.

David Fleniken Dearmond, son of Thomas Dermond and Mary Fleniken, was born 1770-1780, in Mecklenburg County, N. C.³ He and his brothers, Richard and mul, came to Knox County, Tennessee, sometime after 1784, in company with their uncle, John Dearmond. He settled in what became Blount County, and became a planter and slave owner.¹ He was reported in the 1800 and 1801 tax and taxable property reports for Blount County, as owner of 100 acres of land and taxable for one slave poll. The location of his holdings in Blount County has not been determined. He died in 1838, leaving no will, and his son, Thomas Gillespie DeArmond, was appointed administrator.²

His wife was Margaret Harvey (b. 1780-1790).³

AG III RICHARD DEARMOND (c1770-c1819), Lawrence County, Ala.

Richard Dearmond, son of Thomas Dermond and Mary Flenniken, was born probably in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, although the year is unknown. He came to East Tennessee with his brothers, Samuel and David Flenniken, and settled in Knox County, Tennessee. His farm was later included in Blount County when that county was formed. He is recorded as owning 200 acres of land in 1800, and 150 acres in 1801, in the tax lists for those years.¹

His name is recorded as bondsman on the marriage bond of William Stephenson and Jean Hamilton, dated April 17, 1793,² indicating he had already reached his majority.

He is shown on December 22, 1792, as a corporal with six men, holding a frontier garrison at Wells Station, Knox County (later Blount County), against the Indians.³ On June 8, 1797, he was shown as an ensign in Captain Rhea's Company, vice John Kelly, Tennessee Militia; and on May 25, 1799, as lieutenant, and again on October 23, 1799, as captain.⁴ The 1800 and 1801 tax lists for Blount County, Tennessee, include Captain Dearmond's company, indicating he still held that rank.⁵

In 1810, he secured a Tennessee land grant for 346 acres of land in Blount County, lying along the Little River, being in the vicinity of present-day Chandler's Station. This grant may have been secured to clear title to his lands which he had settled before the creation of the State of Tennessee under North Carolina land grant, all such land grants having been declared void by the Tennessee legislature.⁶

Sometime after 1801, he left Blount County and settled in Lawrence County, Alabama, where he died about 1819. His will left one half of his estate to Peggy A. Dearmond, daughter of his brother, David Flenniken Dearmond, of Blount County, Tennessee.⁷

No evidence has been found indicating that he married or had a family.

AG IV WILLIAM DEARMOND (c1775-1857), Bradley County, Tennessee

William Dearmond, son of James Dearmond, senior, and Elizabeth ?Reid, was born in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, 1770-1780. He must have migrated from North Carolina to Tennessee rather early in life as the U. S. census for 1850 records his son, William M., as having been born in Tennessee in 1800. Where he first settled after reaching Tennessee is not known, but he may have tarried for a while in the vicinity of Knoxville, as the lower East Tennessee counties were not open for settlement until shortly after the turn of the century. He was a farmer, and his search for more and better land undoubtedly prompted his move to the fertile and well watered lands of lower East Tennessee. He may also have influenced his uncle, Allen Dearmond, to move to East Tennessee, although Allen did not leave the state of his birth until after 1827. There is some evidence that William may have also operated a grist mill in connection with his farming. He ultimately settled in Bradley County, and made his home at Flint Springs.¹ He died between February and August, 1857.²

The name of his wife is not known.

AG IV ALLEN DEARMOND (1785-1842), Monroe County, Tenn.

Allen Dearmond, son of James Dearmond, senior, and Elizabeth ?Reid, was born December 16, 1785, in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, where he grew to manhood and married.¹³ He became a successful farmer and owned land. He was also a county magistrate, as evinced by documents executed before him.¹ On March 1, 1827, he sold his farm in Mecklenburg County,² and soon afterward removed to Tennessee, settling in Monroe County. On February 5, 1828, he purchased land from George Davis,³ and about 1829 or 1830, he purchased land from F. S. Clarke.⁴ The 1830 census shows him as a man of means, with a large family, and owning 5 slaves.⁵ He is again recorded in the 1840 census with one additional son.⁶

He died in 1842. His will, probated the same year, gave his age and date of birth, and mentioned all his living children and the son of a deceased daughter.⁷

AG V JOHN ALLEN DeARMOND (1806-1876), Flint Springs, Tenn.

John Allen DeArmond, son of William Dearmond, was born in Tennessee, December 22, 1806. Since his father's first home in Tennessee is not known, we do not know where John Allen spent his boyhood. Eventually, his father settled in Bradley County where John Allen secured a grant for land which had been cleared by the Indians, in Flint Springs Valley. He made his home there for a number of years, and there he met and married his wife. At some later date, he moved across the state line and lived at Red Clay, Georgia, and operated a farm and grist mill while his eldest son, John Thompson, was a boy. He later returned to Bradley County, Tennessee, and lived out the remainder of his life at Flint Springs. Bradley County court records show him as serving on the grand jury, Circuit Court, in 1841.

He married, Dec. 15, 1836, Patience E. Lusk (b. July 3, 1815, Bledsoe County, Tenn.; d. Dec. 1, 1876, Bradley County), daughter of Joseph Lusk, II (q.v.) and Rebekah Igou.

He died at his home on November 21, 1876, followed in a few days by his wife and daughter, Lethia E. Legend says that they were poisoned by some milk they drank which had been standing for a time in a cupboard near some paint or other poisonous substance. He is buried at Flint Springs.

John E. DeArmond, son of Allen Dearmond and Mary Caldwell, was born in Mecklenburg County, N. C., in 1826, shortly before his father removed to Monroe County, Tennessee. He grew to manhood in Monroe County, and married there.¹ There seems to be disagreement about his actual name. His father mentioned him in his will as "J. E.", and he is listed in the 1850 census as "John", but O. K. Lyle² lists his name as "John W. W." Sometime after 1850, he followed his two older brothers to Kentucky, and settled in or near Muhlenberg County, and continued the pursuit of farming.

He married first, about 1846, in Tennessee, Lorrinda Caroline Girdner (b. 1827, Tenn.; d. circa 1863).²

oyster can filled with water, and boil till done, then devour the meat from the bone or bones, and boil till soft sufficient to grind with the teeth. We had more pork rations than bacon. The Federal government adopted these rules and regulations to punish the helpless Confederate prisoners, for the reason that we fought for our rights and stood by our colors, and defended our homes and those near and dear to us.

I remained in this prison for six months. It is impossible to realize the suffering of continued hunger. When Generals Lee and Johnston surrendered, all the prisoners were released and returned to their desolated homes in the South.

My War Record was April 30, 1861, to July 4, 1865. The Georgia Campaign, from Atlanta to Nashville, Tenn., the Confederate Army arrived at Nashville, Tenn., during December, 1864. General J. B. Hood was in command; and doubtless a correct description of the destruction of that army has been published, and I did not include this in my war record.

With my best wishes that the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be pleasant and productive of much good, I am with great respect,

... and cannot do hard work, he was very sick last April, we thought we were going to lose him; the children all had the measles last Spring, and they all took the flux after the measles; the flux set the hardest on Norman; he was very low; at the same time there was a little girl of a neighbor living in the same house with us who died with the same disease. He was not sick so long as Norman but was so much younger and not so able to stand sickness. Talley, Al 36535

Dec 12, 1983

Dear Pat:

Working on the Dearman Family, I decided to copy some records for you in case your work on the Mississippi Dearman families could offer me any clues on some of these families -

I have a large amount of data, which for 14 years I have obtained from Archives, Court houses, land records, Birth Records, Cemetery records, etc. It is ~~an~~ interesting family as they were early residents of Miss. Terri-

I have kept a lot of the descendants from their lines - I have always been glad to exchange information -

We are going to publish a book - hope to get back on typing after Xmas - I do not type but my sister does.

The books which the Stricklands have do not keep as I have secured these records many years ago -

I did help Jean Stricklin on John Dearman of Washington Co. Al - She wrote that he had married Beersheba Syles in miss which was not true - the marriage record is in Escambia Co. Fls.

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year -

Sincerely,

Velma Chaney

I am also searching =
Scott, Cannon, Goode, West, Watson, Harrison - Cheney - Wright - Johnston - Barnes - And related families -
Have a large amount on my Goode - West line from Rutherford Co. N.C & Virginia - Some of my Watson line obtained Spanish land grants in Louisiana in what to day is East Feliciana Parish, La - This Watson family was from S.C. Elizabethtown dist.

My Scott family from Lancaster Co. Pa to NC to Reddick, NC - where we got along with many difficulties. It is not a gift sent to the world for us to do well with and to do well with - but as surely as you will give us all you will expect. Do not expect us to do well with others.

Solomon Dearman married Anna Dearman in 1818. She was a daughter of Thomas Monroe Dearman, Sr and his second wife Susanna Morris - Solomon & Anna Dearman lived 1820 Greene Co. MS. Again Jonathan's debts in Miss caught up with him and he wrote his son Solomon for help - Thomas of Dearman another son of Jonathan also didn't go to Florida Territory. He married 1824 Mobile Co. AL - Mary Denmark (2 noted same Denmark families in Perry Co. MS.). So Solomon & Anna left Greene Co. MS. ca 1830 for Escambia Co. Fla. Terri - It was agreed with all the family that Solomon take the slaves to Pickens Co. AL; where the father of his wife lived - Solomon didn't stay in Pickens Co. AL very long, he took the slaves back to Escambia Co. Fla. Terri - In writing it was agreed that the slaves would become the property of Solomon. In the spring of 1832, Thomas of Dearman took the slaves to the new former County of Sumter AL - Anna, must have been expecting a child, a son Thomas Lee Dearman was born 1832 Fla. In the fall of 1832 Solomon and Anna Dearman moved to Sumter Co. AL and Solomon obtained the slaves - In 1833, Jonathan Dearman & the rest of his family except John Dearman, moved to Sumter Co. AL - John Dearman who had married Mrs. Bersieha Sykes 1824 Escambia Co. Fla. Terri; moved in 1836 to Washington Co. AL. Again Jonathan's debts caught up with him & he was thrown in jail.

involved with Young Dearman. Another records shows that Young Dearman had died and James Warrick was handling the case.

In July 1838, Solomon Dearman died and his widow Anna claimed the slaves -- but since the agreement was that Solomon keep the slaves until all of Jonathan's children became of age or until Solomon died. This resulted in a Supreme Court Case in 1841. The children of Jonathan, (1) William Dearman (2) Thomas M. Dearman (3) James Ratcliff who was a slave and (4) Samuel Coffman who was a slave. Anna finally agreed if she could keep the slaves until the heirs were gathered, the slaves would be equally divided among Jonathan's children.

Jonathan and his son William moved in 1839 to Washington Co. AL. Thomas M. Dearman remained in Sumter Co. AL until his death in 1854. Most of Solomon & Anna's children remained in Sumter Co. AL. Several moved to Mississippi but back to Sumter Co.

In 1839, Thomas M. Dearman, Sr. moved to Sumter Co. AL. He is living next door to his son Anna in the 1840 census. He died ca 1840-41 Sumter Co. AL. He stated in his application for Adj. War pension filed 1834 Rockingham Co. NC that he was born 12 June 1752 Orange Co. NC. That he was living in Chowan Dist when he entered service. He moved back to Rockingham Co. NC.

In 1839 Lucretia died -- records also show that James Dearman died in 1836-37 - They had three children Thomas Bassett Dearman, ^{Merriam} Ann Dearman (who was blind) and Eliza Dearman - In the 1840 & 1850 census records of Washington Co. Washington Co AL Mary Boykin - They are not listed in the 1860 Census - I never found him again ^{malissa} ~~but~~ Ann Dearman lived in 1850 with William Bowling family -

Most of the Washington Co AL Dearmans are descendants of John & Beersheba (Syler) Dearman. Some of their descendants also live Greene Co, MS - Several sons of William Dearman (son of Jonathan) moved to Wayne Co, Miss - and then back to Washington Co, AL. If you read the Dearmans in Wayne Co, Miss for 1850 be careful -- there is one family Ann Dearman who is not connected with any Dearmans. She was the wife of William Dearman of Bradley Co, Tenn. Her children continued to spell their name Dearman. I have some pages out of Rose's Delusion Books on Court Records of Bradley Co, Tenn that proves this -

Some of the Washington Co, Dearmans married in Lauderdale Co, Miss -- live for 10 to 15 years in Washington Co, AL; moving to Lauderdale Co, MS. Most of the Lauderdale Co, Miss Dearmans are descendants of William & Eliza Dearman who moved in 1832 from St. Clair Co, AL to Tuscaloosa Co, AL; then in 1838 to Lauderdale Co, Miss. Some of their descendants lived 1900 Choctaw Co, AL -- then Clark Co, Miss -

It has been a difficult job following these Dearman families and their many moves

Dear Pat.

Thank you for taking the time to send me all the Dearman information - I do have it all. Also have Darman & Derman also in old Bath Co.

Thomas Dearman died 1709 -

I thought perhaps when I wrote to you on the Dearmans, perhaps you might have found them later - I have checked & searched and after about 1736 I didn't encounter them - They lived in the same area which became Craven Co then Johnston Co NC - This is where Richard Dearman received a land grant Craven Co in 174 $\frac{3}{4}$. He later transferred this to Nathaniel Hawthorne - Cross added to deeds in Johnston Co - this must have been when he decided to move to Anson Co. N.C. - I have copied all of the McBee records on the Dearmans & Baulk family - they moved in Anson Co. in the part which became Richmond Co. NC - Jesse Becont of Anson has a deed showing it joined the land of Richard Dearman, the land to day is the site of Rockingham N.C. I have some photo copies from the NC Archives or these records - The one where Richard Dearman who was in London gave power of attorney to his mother to sell his land 1709 on the Neuse River (not New River) is near the same location as Richard Dearman's grant in Craven Co -

We have all the books "North Carolina Historical Conf. Genealogical Register by Hathaway" also Ray's Index to

I am convinced that the Deakman - Dezelon - Dorman and Dearman are the Dearman - Dezelon Families - A cousin in Monroe, La joined the Colonial Dames last year on information which I sent to her and was accepted -

One Richard Dorman who was transported by Thomas Harris 1651 Lancaster Co. Pa. Va -

I have ~~ever~~ not found any migration on the Deakman - Dezelon - what have some Dorman - Dernon to Virginia 1652 - 1656 - Family tradition is that the Dearman Family came from England to Virginia - This one settled there to N.C before 1700. I was also told that Richard Dearmans full name was Richard Harrisor Dearman.
This I could not prove - In early records some of the Dearman sons were named Harris Dearman - On the same ship with Richard Dorman was a Elenor Harris - I have never all pages from "Cavaliers & Pioneers". There are two books in the National Archives - I have photo copies of "The Atchison Dearman Book" - The Dearmans were from York Co. England back to 1100.

The William Dearman you found in Cherokee Dist. SC; also served in the Rev. War from S.C. under Wade & Henry Hampton - I have a copy of stub - indent from the SC Archives - when Will Dearman wrote a letter and requested payment for his Rev. War service - stub if he was paid to give it to Robert McCampbell - William Dearman moved to Georgia -

I do appreciate you taking time to send me the data though I do have it.

Will gladly check any of the books we have for names you are searching.

Sincerely

The book I am writing on the Dearman's will have all my references in back of book - I have so many that I thought it might help other researchers -

She must have had another child - - a son who ~~is~~ a Mr. Leurs - Her husband died 1894-1900 - Oscar is a name found in the Wayne Co. MS - Dearmans -

The other Dearmans found in Lauderdale Co. miss are:

1840 - Mary Dearman - widow of Elisha Dearman who died 1839 Lauderdale Co MS - yellow fever - Was a son of Solomon & Mary Dearman. Elisha ~~is~~ 1821 St. Clair Co Al Mary Tannen. She ~~is~~ second 1841 Charles Blackwell -

William Dearman a brother of Elisha Dearman also in Lauderdale Co. MS - 1841 - died there 1854 left a will -
The other Dearmans in Census 1850 then 1900 are children of Elisha & William Dearman.

Then some of the Washington Co. Al Dearmans moved to Lauderdale -

Some of this family also moved to Choctaw Co. Al by 1900 - it is most confusing -

One Isaac Dearman who married in Washington Co. Al moved in 1895 to Covington Co. MS - His son John Benjamin Dearman moved to Greene Co. MS; near Leakesville - at State Line -

21. Thomas Dearman, Jr.

He was not a son of Thomas Monroe Dearman, Jr. as he and Nancy Gates had only one child by 1810, a daughter Elizabeth Dearman.

I have no proof but believe he is a son of Solomon Dearman, son of Thomas Monroe Dearman, Sr. The box list for Perry Co. Mo. shows - Solomon Dearman and his brother Richard living Perry Co. Miss 1821-29. In the 1810 Census of Chesterfield Co. S.C. Solomon Dearman is shown with 3 sons and 3 daug all born 1800-1810. Solomon Dearman moved by 1830 to Copiah Co. Mo. - Richard Dearman & his father Thomas

Dear Pat:

Thank you for your letter - I have copied some Dearman data I have that may help you in your Wayne Co. PIATS - records -

The Mississippi Archives and History have records by the Miss. State Census taken 1845, 1853, 1855 & 1866 - Could be other - About ten years ago, a Mr. White visited the Archives and copied some Dearman & Bounds records - These certainly would make a good add. book to each - I will copy what I have and send to you -

If I can help you, please let me know -

Sincerely,

Tellie Penny

P.S. - If you ever see James Turnbow in any census and record to you - I was sent a record of marriage by someone who copied it out of a Quarterly -

James Turnbow married Matilda Dearman
Oct 16, 1821 Perry Co. MS.

Who was Matilda Dearman that a daughter Thomas M. Dearman, Jr. as his oldest daughter Elizabeth in 1809 Chesterfield Co. SC and she was his oldest child - Could be a daughter of Jonathan Dearman but no proof -

Dear Society Members,

I am researching Emanuel Deas (Diaz) (b., ca. 1815-1830) and his wife Zoe Krebs (1827-1883) daughter of Hilaire Krebs (b. 1797). My particular goal in writing this letter is to locate any source your member may know about that would give more information on Emanuel Deas; his place of origin, occupation, parents names, etc. Please pass this on to anyone who might share interest in this family. I would be glad to share extensive list of the descendants of their son Harry Green Deas (ca.1850-1909).

Thank you,

TO: PATRICIA EDWARDS (CHCT35B)
FROM: JACKIE SAXON (PCSS32A)
SUBJECT: MS-SOUTHEASTERN COS.

Pat, was wondering if you could possibly help with some Wayne County info. I have info that one of the SAXON's married a Dearmond in 1836; According to further info it is possible that this family moved from Bradley County Tn to Wayne County sometime after 1840 but before 1860. Want to see if it is the right family. Bible Records indicate that Mary Eliza Saxon born 1820- SC- married William Dearmond 1836. From a fellow FP member, who is also researching the DEARMOND line, I have obtained the following info. William M. Dearmond- born abt 1800 in TN, died 1850-1856, Bradley County TN; m. Eliza (or Ellen) b. 1820 - SC; issue: Mary Elizabeth Dearmond Walker- resided in Wayne County MS; John Allen Dearmond- resided in Wayne County MS; Nancy Caroline Dearmond- resided in Wayne County MS; Eliza Jane Dearmond- resided in Wayne County, MS; and married a Bartee; and Archibald Newton Dearmond, - resided in Wayne County MS. According to further notes by here there was an estate made in MS 1895 regarding this family or some members of it; I think this may be Mary Eliza and William Dearmond family but would like to know for sure. The names, ages, etc. would match for this couple, except the Bible record states that Mary E. Dearmond died 7 Jan 1897 of paralysis. Do you know where I might obtain further information as to whether or not this is connected to the SAXON line? THanks for your help. Jackie PCSS32A

Dear Betty,

Here are the copies of old letters written in 1866 by students at Albert Lyon's School for Boys, Chatawa, Pike Co., Miss.

"Jimmy" is James Sutherland Deas, Jr., brother of my grandmother --"Artie" is Arthur McClellan English. It seems they were school friends; later became brothers-in-law when Artie married Alice Deas, sister of Jimmy.

Jimmy was born in Clarke County, AL, in 1849; Artie's home was a cotton plantation in Monroe County, AL, just across the river. Both were around 17 years old when the letters were written.

The name of "Lyon" may be connected with French refugees who came to Alabama after the fall of Napoleon. Jimmy's mother was Adele Auze Deas -- the Auzes came to Alabama in 1817. Book "Days of Exile" tells of a family named Glover whose daughter married Francis S. Lyon in 1824; other records show Zachary Deas, uncle of Jimmy, married Helen Glover Lyon in 1850. In the days just after the Civil War, is it possible the Lyon family started a school for boys from the plantation families nearby in Alabama and Mississippi?

Thanks for your interest and help with solving the problem about the school.

Sincerely yours,

Adele

My dear Mother

I have ^{not} received a letter from you or Helen in a week or two, but I expect to get one by to morrow's mail. I ^{am} quite anxious to hear whether the small pox is spreading on the plantation or not. I suppose Pa has ~~got~~ so returned from Pensacola by this time. I wrote to Miss Mamie Deas the other day, and I am very anxious to get an answer. Jimmy received a box of books to day from his Mother, He wrote for them, so he could give them to his Society. I am very much in need of a pair of shoes, as I had to lend my friend Deas a pair. If I knew Mr. Nathe Thomas' address I would write to him, and get him to send me a pair. I don't expect Pa would care. Jimmy is going to New Orleans soon

Arguments Heard Next Wednesday

The county Democratic executive committee will meet at 9 a.m. Wednesday to hear arguments on a petition filed by one of the candidates in the on-again-off-again Beat Three constable election.

The session will be in the supervisor's room at the Courthouse, said Robert H. Oswald, chairman.

The petition was filed by Henry Fletcher, who alleged several points he maintains would make him winner of the election.

Fletcher led his opponent, Alvin Charlton, by a two-vote margin in the second primary count of ballots by election managers, who came up with a tally of 2225 to 2223.

However, in a recount by the county committee the margin was reversed and Charlton was declared winner 2221 to 2219.

In his petition Fletcher alleged: Mathematical error in the physical count of votes in several boxes.

Ballots were excluded by the committee on technical grounds that should have been counted.

Seven ballots in the Bayou Cottontail box were not initialed by the election manager.

Two ballots marked with red pencil or ink should not have been counted.

Ballots on which names of unqualified candidates had been written in identified the voter and should not have been counted. This involved at least one ballot in which the name of Earl Long had been written in for governor.

Oswald said the meeting is being called primarily on the allegation that seven ballots were not initialed. If the allegations are proved, it apparently will make them invalid, he said.

"The committee will give both sides time to argue this in full," he said, and added that "this certainly points up the need of voting machines."

Attorneys for Fletcher are Clinton Lockard, Pascagoula, and Joel Bass, Wiggins. Representing Charlton is Josh Morse, Poplarville.

TAKEN BY DEATH

Funeral Services For Mrs. Thompson Are Held Monday

Funeral services were held Monday at 10 a.m. for Mrs. P. A. Thompson, 42, of Pascagoula.

Mrs. Thompson, a resident of Pascagoula for 19 years, died Saturday at 3:45 p.m. in Singing River Hospital. She had been ill for two weeks.

A native of West Point and a former teacher in the Pascagoula public schools, Mrs. Thompson was a member of the Coast Dental Auxiliary, past president of the Anola Women's Club, active in Central Elementary School PTA and a presbyterian officer.

The body was moved from Jackson County Mortuary to First Presbyterian Church where services were conducted by the Rev. Arthur M. Schneider, Jr., pastor.

Interment was in Jackson County Memorial Park.

Pall bearers were Harry Sisson, Frank X. Sandner, Jr., Richard Schaeffer, George J. Hollister, L. W. Browder, Jr., and Claiborne Koch.

Survivors include her husband; three sons, Perry, Jr., David and Leslie; three daughters, Patricia, Diane and Elizabeth Ann.

Her father, E. M. Deas, West Point; three sisters, Mrs. H. H. Teasley, Starkville, Mrs. A. T. Mullins, Macon, and Mrs. Frank Strong, Columbus, and a brother, Horace A. Deas, Jackson.

ENDER RIDE ENDS With Two Treated For Crash Injuries

Two teenagers were treated for injuries Thursday night when a fender ride from church ended in a collision at Cleveland Avenue and 11th Street.

Treated at Singing River Hospital were:

Opal Rushing, 18, 1106 Taft Avenue, cuts and bruises of the arms and legs, and 17-year-old Jimmy Morrison, 1404 Cleveland leg injuries. Both were treated and released, the hospital said.

Investigating officer Capt. J. P. Winstead said the pair, returning from a church meeting, were riding on the front fenders of a car when it smashed into the rear of a parked vehicle.

Winstead identified the driver as Della Sue Bates, 18, 2309 Ingalls Avenue. Owner of the parked car is Ivor Hendrick of Keesler AFB.

The officer said Miss Bates was traveling west on Cleveland. No charges were filed.

New Gymnasium Will Be Dedicated At Goula Tonight

The new $340,000 facilities building and gymnasium at Pascagoula High School will be formally dedicated at ceremonies tonight.

The building, completed this summer, is one of the best-planned of its kind in the state.

Dedication ceremonies will start at 7:30 p.m., according to superintendent Virgil C. Gill. Principal speaker will be Thad Smith, University of Mississippi athletic director.

The gymnasium has a permanent seating capacity of 840, which can be increased by use of temporary facilities, Gill said.

In addition to the gymnasium and physical education department, the building contains a band room and space for the musical department and facilities.

Ceremonies will be open to the public.

DIED.

At her late residence, at East Pascagoula, Miss., on September 16, 1885, at 2 a. m., Mrs. E. Deas, surviving widow of the late Emanuel Deas, at the age of 58 years.

Mobile, Ala., New Orleans, La. and Dallas, Texas, papers, please copy.

Mrs. Deas had suffered severely for a month previous to her death, during which time she was diligently attended by loving hands and medical skill, but her condition had been such for some days that her death was not unexpected. She had been a resident of Pascagoula for many years, where she lost her husband several years ago, and she now leaves a family of nine children, all grown, except two. To the bereaved ones we extend our sincere sympathy.

This sad event has cast a gloom over our community, and I cannot help referring to some of the peculiar traits of his character and disposition which had endeared Mr. Deas to so many of his personal friends and admirers. My acquaintance with Mr. Deas was only of five months, yet I had learned to appreciate his excellent qualities of heart and to honor his independent judgment. He was a man of remarkable energy. In looking after his family, in hunting up the needy and destitute, in ministering to their wants, in consoling the sick, in cheering the well, he never seemed tired. Whatever he had to do he did cheerfully and with all his might.

He won the love and respect of many by his unfailing kindness. Mr. Deas was a man of rare independence of judgment. He never adopted the opinion of others, but held them subject to severe analysis, and only accepted them when they accorded with his own well-defined convictions. Whatever position he took, either as a friend, father or citizen, he took conscientiously and with determination, and upon his own judgment. He would recognize no human authority as before his own conscience or the conclusions of his own intellect.

was part of this mission, or circuit. In 1836 the Gainesville District disappears, and the Macon District appears. Meridian is mentioned in 1859 in the Conference Journal, and alternated with Lauderdale for several years, hence we believe it was possibly a circuit.

In 1864, Alabama was divided into two annual conferences, and the Mississippi churches were put into the Mobile Conference where they remained until 1870 when all the Mississippi churches were placed either in the Mississippi or North Mississippi Conference. Meridian District has a very continuous history in the Mississippi Conference since 1870.

The History of Methodism in the Mississippi Conference, 1846-1870 written by The Rev. J. B. Clegg and Methodism in the Alabama Conference, 1846-1870 written by Mr. J. W. Clegg.

A paper by Mr. G. Link of Brown, written for the annual conference of 1919, articles in the New Orleans Christian Advocate and others papers have furnished the basic outline remainder of this paper.

The deed to the first Methodist church building, lot, and graveyard, filed Oct. 29, 1852, shows that the property was obtained "for one dollar paid in hand to William Dearman" by Levi Barton, Ferdinand Snow, and James Arrington, trustees of the church of the Lauderdale circuit of the Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. He deeded a parcel of land including a church house and graveyard, and the description in the deed and old map shows they were located on A St., between Ninth and 11th Avenues.

Old Church Site Sold
In every thought of Methodism in Meridian, with hands uplifted in gratitude we recall the name of old Brother Dearman, local preacher, kind in heart, generous in spirit. He gave us a frame church and cemetery ground in the Northeastern part of town. The old building seemed to have served its day and generation, and when the high tide of commercialism struck Meridian, the trustees sold the old church site and the grounds. More than a thousand bodies were interred there, including many Confederate soldiers. The graves were leveled and the bodies were not moved, including that of the donor.

In 1860 a lot on the Northwest corner of 11th st. and 27th ave. was bought from John T. Ball. In January, 1860, a deed was given, contracted for in 1859, for $200, by church trustess John H. Gibbs, I. S. O. G. Greer, R. Y. Rew, L. Gould and James Watts. On it was erected a hand hewed frame and log church building, Alexander McBryde, pastor. During the war this house was used for barracks, quartermaster and commissary department purposes. It was set on fire by Sherman's soldiers, but the fire was extinguished. When NOT occupied by the military, services were kept up by Confederate Army chaplains and circuit riders. Occasional services of the Protestant Episcopal Church were held in this building by Rector George Stewart.

The first quarterly conference for Central Church was held Jan. 15, 1866. The Rev. O. P. Thomas, P. C. and The Rev. S. M. Cox, P. E., I. S. O. G. Greer, Dr. Lyman Gould and R. M. Herbert, stewards. Upon the old records many years ago, when the church rolls were being perfected, a name would be called, and the answer would be that "that brother went to Heaven from the Shiloh Battle Field" — another name "He went to Heaven from Chattanooga" — another, "He was buried in the Battle of the Wilderness," etc. God sent pioneers with the Holy seal of those early days. Over and over again there was to be found in the records the urging of fasting and prayer before the meeting of the quarterly conference. All over the present Meridian District, and in Meridian, are to be found, and thanks be to God, James Watt, trustees, O. Thomas, pastor, filed for record the children whose lives reflect the power of such faithful

FAMILY AFFAIR — Five generations of the Mathers family gathered recently for this portrait. They are led by family matriarch Mrs. Bardee Mathers (seated), who celebrates her 85th birthday today. Mrs. Mathers, who lives in Montgomery, Ala., is surrounded by (standing, from left) her daughter, Yvonne Deas of Moss Point; her granddaughter, Miriam "Mickey" Cumbeast of Pascagoula, and her great-grandson, Charles R. George Jr., also of Pascagoula. Mrs. Mathers is holding her great-great-granddaughter, 2-month-old Carrie J. George of Pascagoula, who was born on Christmas Eve of 1989.
